CALENDAR

1958-1959

On September 3, the school year, 1958-59 began. September 19 marked the beginning of a football season filled with thrills and spills. The band made a commendable showing at the tenth annual Band Day at Ann Arbor, Sept. 27.

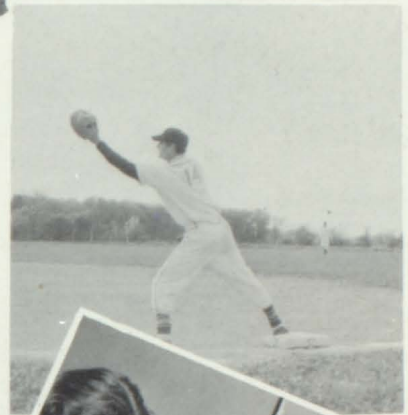

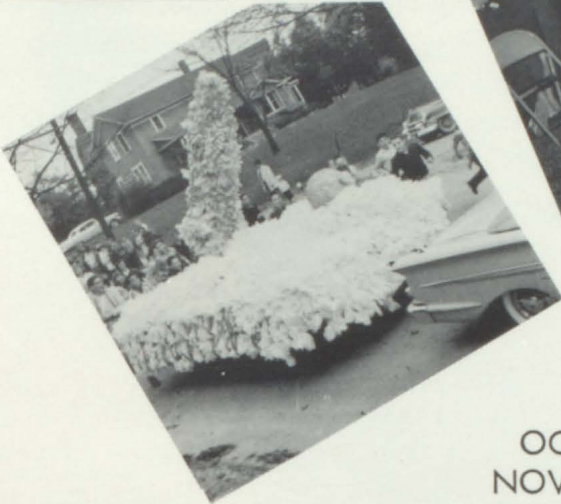

Among the October activities were Homecoming, October 10, with Ruth Ann Rogers and Paul Franko reigning over the afternoon parade and half-time festivities. The Juniors took top honors with their float "Let's Skunk 'Em." On November 13 and 14 the Seniors presented a mystery "Reserve Two for Murder." The Band presented an enjoyable Christmas Concert on December 23. January marked the beginning of the second semester. On February 11, Students participated in the Thumb "B" Talent Show. On February 26 the All-Sports Banquet was held.

March activities included the Local Forensic Contest, High School Achievement Day, and a concert by Rubinhoff and his Violin. On April 16 and 17, the Juniors presented "Time Out For Ginger." The Jr.-Sr. Prom, with its theme "Oriental Paradise," made April 24 a night to remember.

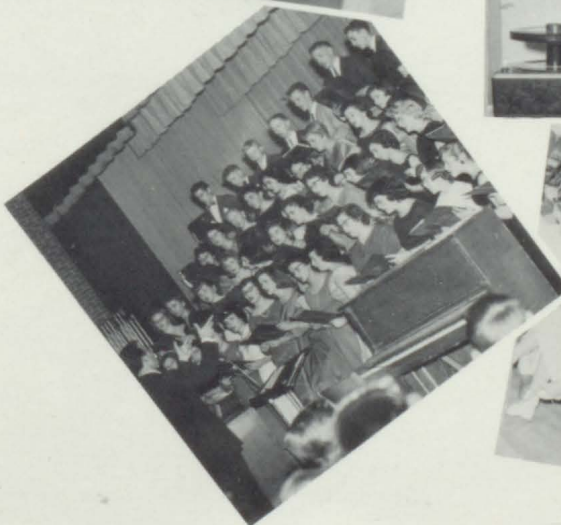

The High School Band presented a colorful Spring Concert May 21 and 22. Also held May 22 and Senior Class Day. On May 23 the Seniors left for an excitement filled week at Washington D.C.

Dressed in solemn blue robes, the Seniors attended Baccalaureate Services May 31. On June 1, the award assembly was held. June 3 saw the crowning of four years of hard work, as the Seniors marched down the aisle to receive their diplomas.

HOMECOMING

Homecoming began October 10, 1958, with a colorful parade through town. Floats, followed by throngs of laughing students, the V.H.S. marching band strutting proudly, and convertibles carrying the King and Queen, Paul Franko and Ruth Ann Rogers, Seniors, and their court, all helped make it a parade to remember. Spectators lined the sidewalk, and later the football field with equal enthusiasm.

The Varsity football players did their part to make it a night to remember, too. Cros-Lex went ahead in the first quarter with a touch-down. The score remained motionless until the final moments of the game when Vassar scored two thrilling touchdowns to win the game 13-7.

PROM

ORIENTAL PARADISE

"Oriental Paradise" was the theme of this year's Junior - Senior Prom, which was held on April 24.

The theme of the prom was written in gold scouring pads across the front of the stage. A Japanese Pagoda and two Japanese dolls made up the stage decorations. The prom was given a spring effect with its gay cherry blossom trees and rosebud hoops, covered with silver foil. Wing chimes and Japanese lanterns hung from wires, also covered with silver foil.

The main attraction was the gigantic oriental lantern which hung from the rafters to the floor. It was covered with pink and white ribbons and surrounded with colored lights.

The refreshment table was surrounded by a cherry blossom trellis as well as the two lovely young ladies dressed in authentic, oriental costumes.

Jerry Libbey's quartet furnished the music for the young people to dance to.

A good time was had by all who attended, and we know this will be a prom they will never forget.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

This year four seniors and nine juniors were elected into the National Honor Society. This is an honor and achievement that only the top students across the nation receive.

The organization is national, and only those who really deserve and work for membership are elected.

The qualities one must possess in order to be eligible for membership in the club are:

- Scholarship
- Outstanding Leadership
- Character
- Service

We're proud of those in our school who received this honor.

MEMBERS

INITIATES

Marilyn Brown, Don Holzhei, Ruth Rogers, Diane Erb, Nancy MacKay, Bill White, Margo Pasch, Shirley Daenzer.

ALPHA BETA

The Alpha Beta award is perhaps the most coveted award given in high school. The student receiving this honor is selected by the faculty on the basis of four points---Scholarship, Leadership, Loyalty, and Service. In order to be eligible, the student must possess a "B" or better average.

MARILYN BROWN--Senior

JANET BARANSKI--Junior

SUZANNE GARNER--Sophomore

DAWN ROLES--Freshman

STUDENT COUNCIL

SEATED: Suzanne Garner, Pat Opperman, Gloria Paquette, Ruth Ann Rogers, Ralph Jones, Mr. Kelly, Bob Vos.
SECOND ROW: David Smith, MariIyn Brown, Shirley Gamet, Janet Baranski, Carolyn Laking, Mary Lou Miller,
Deur Park. THIRD ROW: Jack Opperman, David MacKay, Tom Fraker, Ray Baranski, Robert Roblin, Don Holzhei.

The Vassar Student Council is organized for the purpose of promoting school spirit, securing unity between students and faculty, developing better citizens, promoting higher scholarship, and voicing students opinion of the governing of student activities.

During the year the Council participated in the normal activities such as planning the talent show, getting "King-Queen" elections under way, and being "host" to several other School Councils at the Annual Picnic.

Bob Vos, a member of the Council, was elected President of the Thumb "B" Council, which includes other schools in the area.

Three students, also Thumb "B" representatives, accompanied the advisor, Mr. Kelly, to Ann Arbor to attend a Student Council Leaders meeting at the University of Michigan.

Each year the council takes on new responsibilities, in an effort to improve and better our school.

FORENSICS

The first local Speech Contest of the Vassar schools was held on March 12, 1959. In the Declamatory group, Mary Cheek placed first, with Jack Opperman second. Marilyn Brown won first place and Dorothy Burkowski placed second in the Interpretive reading. Barbara McKee placed first and Ruth Honsinger second in the Oratory contest. The Humorous reading contest was won by Nancy MacKay with Diane Erb placing second. These winners went on to participate in the District Forensic Contest, also held at Vassar.

Nancy MacKay and Marilyn Brown, first and second place winners of the contest went on to represent the school in the Regional Forensic Contest held in Flint. They received second place ratings in that contest. Also, in the same contest, Jack Opperman rated third and Diane Erb and Mary Cheek placed fourth in their respective divisions.
