Redskins Bite The Dust As Vassar Wins, 31-6

Two touchdown passes by Dick Petty to Jim Horwath gave Coach Phil Kullman's Vassar Vulcans an easy 31-6 win over Sandusky in the final game of the season.

As the game opened a relative small group of fans were battling for the Vulcans in the last game of the season. Vassar was the first to attack a game against the Redskins. The Redskins put up for a first quarter and made 12-0. They had to punt on fourth down. The Vulcans answered back to the 35. Vassar took the ball and started rolling down field. Tom Temple put on his flying shoes and went 40 yards to Sandusky's 25 and another first down. Jim Smith then went for 15 yards to the Redskins' five and another first down. The remainder of the first quarter for the Vulcans was very quiet as they rolled over the goal line for the first score of the game, a 13 to 0. Sandusky bounced back in the second quarter after an interception by the Vulcans. The Redskins scored but Vassar gained five yards on moving with a first down pass

Vassar Outlasts Marl Elktion-Pigeon Wins E

Vassar and Elktion-Pigeon maintained their status as unbeaten co-leaders of the Thumb B Association by scoring easy victories in high school basketball games last night.

Vassar's powerful Vulcans opened up a 7-45 three-quarter margin over Marlette on the way to a 93-40 victory, and Elktion-Pigeon was never pressed in piling up a 65-47 win over Bad Axe.

In other league games, Cass City thumped wireless Sandusky 52-23.

Elktion-Pigeon Wins

Unbeaten Vassar with records all set is certain to be best-scoring high ball team in Saginaw.

Vassar Wins, 82-66 For District Cage Title

CARO — Vassar (19-4) spurted for 21 points in the game's last five minutes on the way to an 82-66 victory over Cass City (7-11) here last night for the Class B district high school basketball tournament championship.

The high-scoring Vulcans from Vassar, rated the state's top Class B team, now advance into the regional tournament at Flint this week against district Class B champions from Saginaw, Otisville - Lakeville, Flint Kearsley and Swartz Creek.

Vassar used balanced scoring to power into a 21-14 first quarter lead and a 47-33 margin at halftime. Cass City then clipped two points from the edge, 57-45, in the third quarter.

THE RED HAWKS, who turned gant-killers in upsetting Elktion - Pigeon - Bay Port here Friday night, threatened to duplicate the feat by moving within six points, 57-51, early in the fourth quarter.

But scoring Johns regains the previously held lead.

Johnson, Temple scored 20 points, 57-51, early in the fourth quarter.

Zwerk led Vassar in scoring with 18, 18 and 17 points respectively. Cliff Beckham added 13 points and Jim Horwath 10 for the unbeaten Vulcans. Art Randall scored 16 points, Gary Hutchinson 15, Tim Anthes 12 and Gordon Goodall 11 for Cass City.

SCHULTZ led the Lakers with 20 points. Kleinschmidt added 19 and Roger Deering 10 for the losers.

In the reserve game, Elktion-Pigeon-Ray Port's unbeaten Little Lakers gave indications that things may be different.

By truncating the schedule, the Little Lakers were able to play 19 games in 12 days. They won 12 and lost 7.
