Dedication

MISS LOIS CRAIG

“. . . A pause, a prayer, an upward look;
A smile, a gesture, and a word;
It is enough; for as the teacher speaks
In tones quiet, frank, and kind,
I see the path more clearly than before.”

-----Warren Sherman

At the close of this school year Vassar High School was called upon to say farewell to one whose sincere interest in each student's future has often exceeded even our own. She has invested liberally in V.H.S. of her time and energy, especially in the revealing of Vassar's own history.

Ironically, as we have honored the pioneer citizens of the city of Vassar through the historical marker she inspired, we now honor Miss Lois Craig. Her contribution to the lives of Vassar's young citizens has become history.

It is with regret that we bid her "Bon voyage", as she travels westward to her beloved state of Iowa, for the next chapter in American history by Lois Craig.

Ski Club

During the snow season, the Ski Club, a new organization this year, met as frequently as possible to learn to ski or just to ski together. Far too often they were told, "Not enough snow today." When the weather permitted, however, every Monday after school found the halls near the main entrance lined with enthusiastic skiers, sitting on the floor, leaning against the walls, or just looking out the door for the bus that would take them to Apple Mountain.

Hardy sponsors of this organization were Mrs. Numelin and Mr. Blossom, but apparently the fluctuating membership of some eighty-five to a hundred students was so busy skiing, anointing bruises, bandaging ankles and the like, that there was never time to elect any officers.

Homecoming

THE QUEEN AND HER COURT

QUEEN KAREN

Not even a dark, drizzly evening dampened our spirits Homecoming night. Many faithful marchers followed the band, the Queen candidates, and the floats to the stadium, where at halftime Karen Schiefer was crowned 1965 Homecoming Queen, and the sophomore float, "BEAT THE EGGLES" won first prize.

The Vulcans valiantly fought the conference champions, the Frankenmuth Eagles, holding them to one touchdown in the first half, but were finally overcome. We were consoled, however, by a royal Homecoming dance, where the Queen and her court were honored.

The seniors were optimistic.

The Freshman Float

The Junior Float

Nancy Stacer, 1964 Homecoming Queen, presented the trophy to Chuck Kyle, sophomore vice-president.

The seniors, juniors, and freshmen were awarded second place in a three-way tie.
