What could Jim Evans be looking for????; The VHS Cheerleaders perform a mount done by MSU Cheerleaders; Who could that masked man possibly be? Why it's Mr. Moore dancing and singing with Mrs. Agan in the Variety show; Stacey Stedry and Craig Gibisas are caught up in the action (ahem!); The fans of the mighty Vulcans will go to great lengths, such as standing, just to catch a glimpse of them!; The homecoming Queen candidates prepare for their ride around the track for the halftime ceremonies; Seniors Tonya Zittel, Stacy Finta, Bonni Proctor, and Teresa Palmer give a friendly "hello" to our cameraman.

Junior Kim Wagner strolls down the hall; Sophomore Ken Dietrich wants "more food, please," in his role as Oliver, this year's Musical presentation; The Basketball teams and the cheerleaders line the floor for the national anthem; Annette Smith, Lynn Bradley, and Bonnie Huber are caught by the cameras; Regina McCloud's shoe says it all; Lisa Wells and Nancy Thurston practice their musical talents; Tom Gunnell and Sue Zwerk study together in the library.

Fall Organizations

Fall activities would not be the same without flag bearers like Teresa Palmer, the annual cheerdown between the French and Spanish classes (are the Frenchies sure about 'l'Ordure?'), the cheerleaders leading us on to a victory, and the band which provides plenty of half-time entertainment and lots of rousing music.

Senior Trip- Toronto

(below) Jim Graubner and Terri Amend check over the tour brochures on their first day in the big city; Mark Bender is up to his usual tricks as he tries to "clean up" Toronto while Tina Burley doesn't quite know what to make of him, on the other hand Bob Farnham just goes on his way; Don't know if Casa Loma was ready for the sight, but Tonya Zittel, Linda Masker, Lori Holzhei, LeAnn Hadd, John Hoornstra, Teresa Palmer, and Stacy Finata sure loved the sight-seeing; Jerry Solgat, Jim Evans, and Greg Birk show off their legs as they walk down Yonge Street; "Another souvenir for Linda," shrugs John Hoornstra, as Melissa Sipes checks her camera; What are LeAnn, Melissa and Sally Balli looking at? Birds that decorated the most famous mall in Toronto; Scott Wenzel, waits for the train ride home, while for Kyle Kennard the trip just proved to be too much.

For The Record . . .

"Tomorrow is the most important thing in life. It comes into us at midnight clean. It's perfect when it arrives and puts itself in our hands. I hope we've learned something from yesterday."

To Those of You Who Made This Possible:

Thank you . . . To those of you who supported us by buying the 1981 Edition of the ECHO . . . This is for you and without your support, it would have been nothing.

To those special people who worked, glued, typed, racked brains, laid out photos and put up with me . . . You're the best! David Warner, our photographer. Without photos, you have no book! David, your headache (us) is over! Thank you, David, for saving us every time . . . Joyce Farnum, my thinking part. Rejoice, Joyce! No more captions to write! No more silly cliches to think of! But we sure had fun, didn't we? . . . Tonya Zittel, the savior. She saved my skin every time I had to be saved! She helped in laying out those photos that never fit, and writing those captions that never sounded right. Bless you, Tonya . . . Stacy Finta, the circle lady. Every circle in this book touched the talented hands of Stacy Finta. Stacy was the only person capable of perfecting the art of Circular Photographs. Thanks to you, Stacy, for keeping the theme going strong . . . Elisa Surmont, the index gal. Elisa tracked all of you down and kept a record of wherever you occurred in the book. Always on top of things, Elisa, thank-you . . . Ann Gugel, who has helped for three years now. Ann, it's O.K. if you cut Mr. Killian's head off! We all make mistakes once in a while! . . . Roberta Cosby . . .

she knows what I'm going to say! Those poor feet! . . . Margaret

Wade, the morale officer. Those words of inspiration will live forever! . . . Reneé Folino, the all-in-one. Reneé helped wherever she could, and did it darn good. Thanks Neé . . .

Thanks to Wendy Schemm and Marsha Kern for all the Fund Raising done . . . Special Thanks to Steve Gean for his cover design. Steve, you made our day! . . . Quadruple

Thanks to Carl's Studios for their many photos and Mark Warner for his special attention and for loaning his camera to (and trusting?) me. And especially to Mrs.

Russell, advisor and fearless leader. Thanks for choosing us to do this book. We love you and are forever grateful.

Thanks for the Memories,

Shelly
