ECHO '85
vol. 39.

Vassar High School
220 Athletic St.
Vassar, MI. 48768

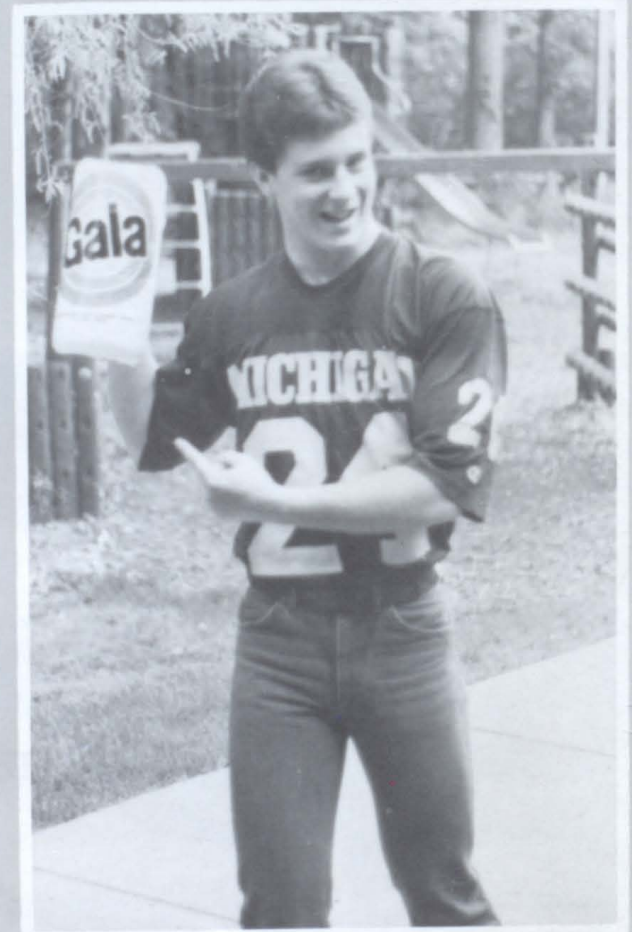

Sue Kata, Vicki Endert and Jayne Brown jam at one of the many festivals attended this year.

Several of Senior O's Spanish students helped educate the rest of the school during National Foreign Language Week.

With earphones still in style, Junior Mark "Wolfman" Conway lives in his own world during a band festival.

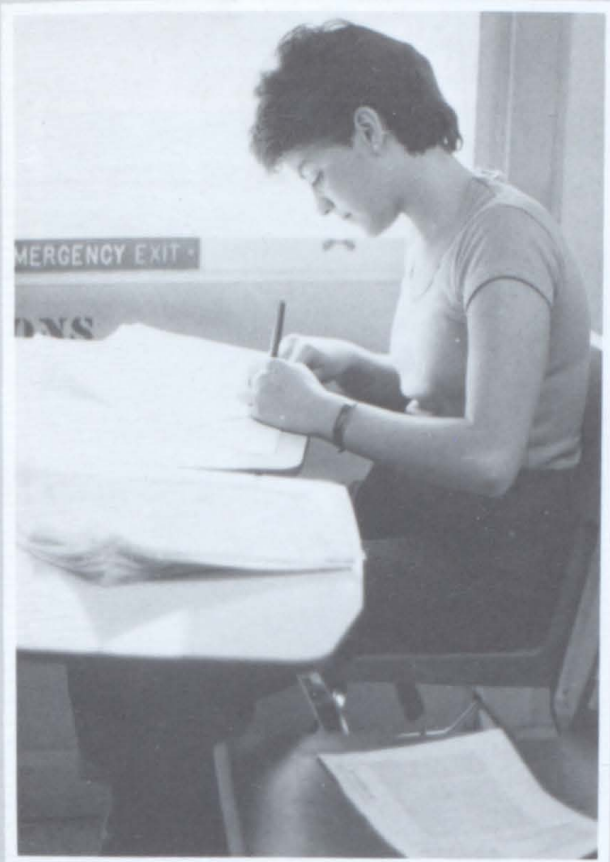

Sophomore Scott McFarland shows off his super human strength at the Honors picnic "gala".

Wonder if Jackie Hoover, T.A. for Mrs. Jamison, thinks the 1/2 credit is worth marking all those papers?!

Eggs McMuffin made Early-Bird Government a little easier to swallow, right Durk?

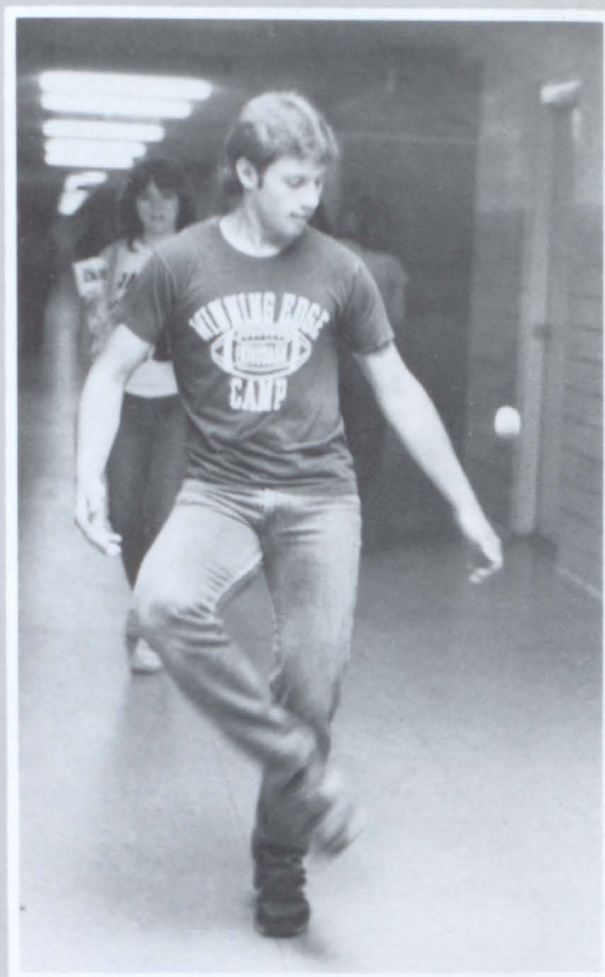

Three hungry VHS students, Christy Bielski (l), Sue Hoornstra and Mike Davis relax while waiting for dinner to be served at the honors picnic.

Freshman Dewey Rapson wonders if the Dunkin Donuts man makes unscheduled stops.

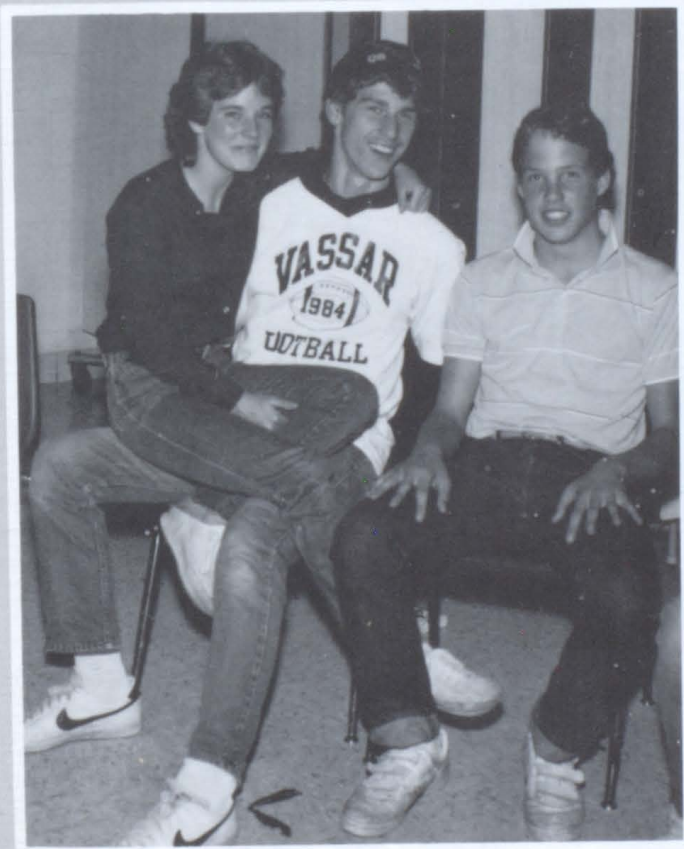

Marcia Killian horns in on the action with Cathy Rapson and Melody Foess at a VHS basketball game.

(below) "What are you laughing at, Tammy", Katie Reynolds, April Watson, Dominic Ramirez, Wendy Gouine, Lysandra French, Mark Conway and Tammy Burley wish everyone a good night!

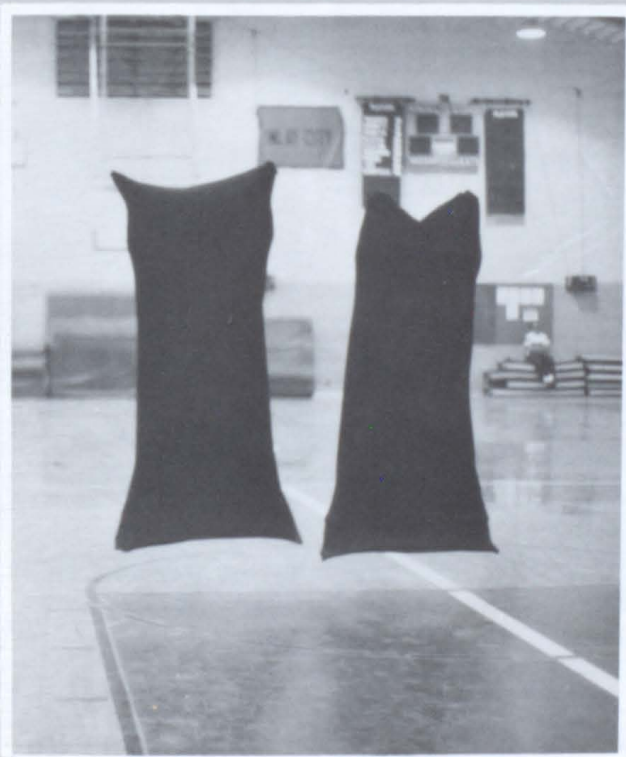

Monica Sterling, and Ann Kibbe as the duet charmed their audience during the play. (They also burst a few ear drums)

"Hey Laura, leave some for us!"

(1) Tobey Van Wormer says, "Make my day!"; Matt Kirkwood takes a different look at the world; Shannon McFarland, Julie Maurer, and Heidi Rupprecht find a good spot to chow down; "Eck, a mouse! (or is that just the cheerleaders?)."

Susan Hoornstra demonstrates the proper way to eat cake.

Hey Paul, is it really that interesting?

Jim Heidenberger finds it easier to surrender than to run.

The Pointer Sisters' (e.g. Richelle Moorner, Melanie Smith, and Tonya Lyles) latest competition hits Vassar!

JUNE 2, 1985

(opposite page, top) The Top Ten graduating seniors for the class of 1985 were: (front l.) Stephanie Kuhn, Valedictorian June Auernhamer, Salutatorian Ann Barnett, Jim Hoornstra and Mary Grimshaw; (back l.) Jack Goodfellow, Paul Walz, Todd Leach, Rob Maier, and Greg Surmont; It was a long wait before all the seniors finally made it in for the actual ceremonies; Marty Zwerk double checks his diploma as Carol Gibisas looks on; Mr. Chinery congratulates Ann Barnett as she receives the Alpha Beta Award; Mr. Moore hands out the actual diplomas to Debbie King, Jim Cain, Daree Kralik and Dave Viele; the celebration just begins for this happy group right after the ceremonies; June Auerhamer gives her valedictory address to her classmates; and Mike Bielski was awarded the Caro Arts Society Scholarship to continue his studies in music.

Let us strive to reach beyond ourselves and remember those who have gone before us as we make our way in the world. Let us hope that the memories we share with friends and family will provide us with the strength we need for the future.

IN MEMORY OF
TIM BERLIN AND DON CARR
