1 NBA Superstar Kareem Abdul-Jabbar hooks one of the last shots in his professional career after 20 years, six championships and 38,387 points, the most in pro history.

2 Tour de France winner Greg LeMond embraced his magic bicycle on the cover of "Sports Illustrated" after being named Sportsman of the Year.

3 California Interstate 880 pitched and heaved Oct. 17 when the quake hit.

Registering 7.1 on the Richter scale, it claimed 67 lives and caused $6.5 billion in property damages.

4 Voyager II captured a false-color image of Neptune on its way to an endless journey into interstellar space.

5 A maniacal grin lit the face of the Joker (Jack Nicholson) in Warner Bros.' action-adventure film "Batman."

6 The People's Liberation Army crushed a human barricade to regain control of Tiananmen Square, the site of a month-long pro-democracy protest by one-million Chinese students and workers.

7 Barbie hit the Big 3-0 in 1989. The eternal teen has come a long way since her introduction and now enjoys a trendier look and richer sales.

8 A weary President Bush announced U.S. troops had invaded Panama Dec. 20 on a mission to capture General Manuel Noriega on drug charges.

9 Fireworks sizzled in the Paris sky, illuminating the Arch of Triumph during the 200th anniversary of the French Revolution.

10 East met West for the first time in 28 years following the destruction of the Berlin Wall. Berlin youth danced near Checkpoint Charlie in celebration.

11 New Kids on the Block took the pop music scene by storm with their No. 1 hit single, "I'll Be Loving You (Forever)." Group members are Jon Knight, Danny Wood, Joe McIntyre, Donnie Wahlberg and Jordan Knight.

12 It's not a secret anymore. The radar-eluding B-2 stealth bomber was displayed for the first time in Palmdale, California.

Exchange Students

Nineteen year old Anja Caudron was a great addition to Vassar from Brussels, Belgium. Anja stayed with the Terry Meisel family and participated in the fall play, drama club, Viva club and the journalism program. A.P. English and art were Anja's favorite classes.

Anja enjoyed her stay with the Meisels and would like to thank them for letting her be a part of their family. "I will never forget them and will always have a place for them in my heart". Anja hopes to return to Vassar some day.

Exchange student Inga Lynn Kroeger stayed with the family of David Hall. She enjoyed both her stay with her American family and her stay in Vassar.

Her favorite classes were woodshop, speech and art, because in West Germany she wouldn't have had the opportunity of taking those classes.

During the year she was involved in football, track, pep club, the fall play and the spring musical.

Inga had a lot of fun being an exchange student and would like to thank the Vassar students for making her experience in America a good one.

Hecht, Sue Folino, Natalie Hoffman, Sheri Miner, and Jason Bierlein; candidates take the pledge; Mr. Mason was named an Honorary Member of the Vassar NHS; Kim Knoll helps as Jenny Lasceski signs the register; and NHS president Shawn McFarland, gives the welcoming address.

Thespians Induction

Membership in the International Thespians society is a honor. Students who are inducted must meet strict theatrical standards for production and support work. The Vassar unit of The International Thespians Society, an organization for students involved in theater, is directed by Mrs. Hackett and Mrs. Franko.

In Memoriam

Though we may feel the absence of those no longer with us, we must remember what they have done for us. Sometimes a smile or a kind word made the difference in our days. What they have given us and what they have taught us can never be taken away.

Nothing Gold Can Stay

Nature's first green is Gold,
Her hardest hue to hold.
Her leaves an early flower,
But only for an hour.
Then leaf subsides to leaf,
So dawn goes down in day.
Nothing Gold Can Stay.

Homecoming 1989

The 1989 Homecoming celebration finally came to an end as the scoreboard showed a Vulcan defeat. But fans and visitors were treated with a hard-hitting game full of Vulcan pride and spirit. Homecoming activities were topped off as Shelly Heinlein was crowned the 1989 Homecoming Queen. The queen's court consisted of (below l.) Trisha Miner, escorted by Joe Reinfelder; Jenni Bielert, escorted by Brian Hackett; Sherry Swartz, escorted by Shawn McFarland; Heidi Mead, escorted by Brett Szagesh; and Queen Shelly Heinlein, escorted by Rob Atwood.

Stacy Griffith, escorted by Vic Molina. (l) Shelly is crowned by last year's queen Diana Kukulski, as Superintendent Bill Chinery looks on. This year's theme was cartoons. The freshman won the float contest, the juniors won the hall decorating contest and the tug of war, the sophomores swept away the annual spirit jug, and the seniors dominated over the spirit jar contest. Overall, homecoming was won by the seniors, sophomores, and freshmen.

Comehomeing 1990

This year's Comehomeing turned out to be a great success. Jason Morley was crowned 1990 Comehomeing King. Jason was escorted by Heidi Mead (photo top right). Other king candidates were: (below right) Kirk Walker escorted by Toni Rhoades, Joe Reinfelder escorted by Trisha Miner, King Jason Morley escorted by Heidi Mead, Shawn McFarland escorted by Christina Hipkins, James Becker escorted by Trena Buella, and Dave Albrecht escorted by Nicole Thompson. The class representatives were (lower right) Freshmen Representative Mike Sipes escorted by Andrea Heidenberger, Sophomore Representative Shane Shephard escorted by Kerry Hubbard, and Junior Representative Jason Raymond escorted by Jill Colosky.

The theme for Comehomeing this year was "Under the Sea". In the banner competition the juniors placed fourth with the theme "We Will Wrap Up the Lakers". Freshmen came in third with the theme "We'll Sink the Lakers". The theme "Lakers are Sunk" gave the sophomore class second place, and first place went to the seniors with the theme "Catch the Vulcan Wave".

In the hall decorating contest juniors took fourth place. There was a tie for second place between the sophomores and freshmen. Seniors also received first place in the week of comehomeing.

The week of comehomeing is known to all students as Spirit Week. The class that showed the most spirit in 1990 was the senior class. Events during this week included Generic Day, which was Monday and students were dressed in all black and white. Tuesday was Decorate Your Locker Day where students were their own designers and decorated the outside of their lockers. Wear a Bag On Your Head was the theme for Wednesday. Thursday, students got out the scotch tape and taped a quarter on their forehead. Friday was the traditional Orange and Black Day. Also on Friday, the varsity basketball team came to school dressed in tuxedos.

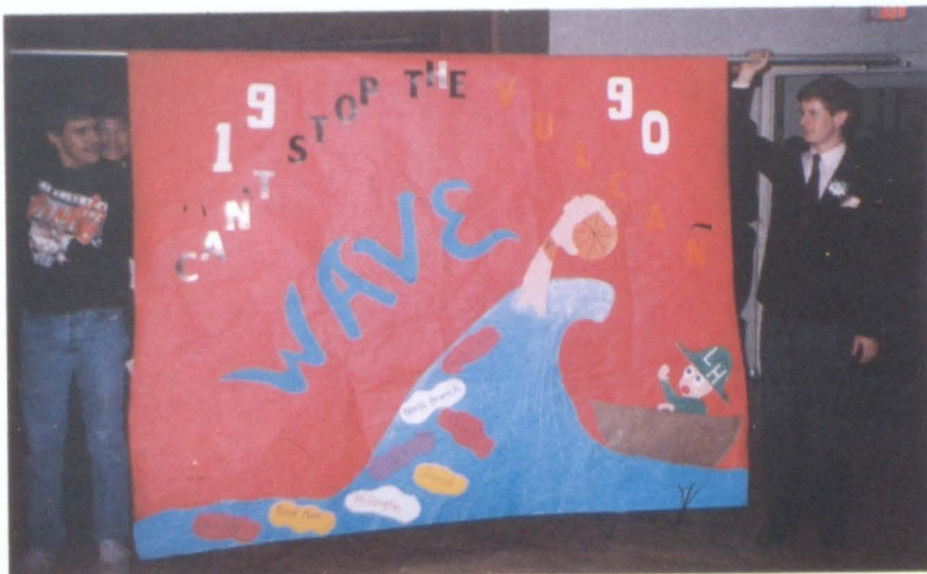

(top clockwise) We bet they never told Mr. Heckman there would be days like this in his education classes; freshman Stephanie Monteath and junior Chris Flathou show their Vulcan spirit on "Orange and Black Day" debonair Ben Guile, varsity team player, struts his stuff; the Pep Band kept Brian Hackett alive at the Comehomeing Assembly, Senior Brian Hackett raced to the finish line to take first place in the obstacle course. Here he is shown eating baby food; sophomore Matt Lee and "orange" batting practice just don't seem to match up.

(top, clockwise) "Bag on your Head Day" brought out the best in seniors Shawn McFarland and Joe Reinfelder; Sherry Swartz really jazzed it up for Locker Day; sophomore Sheri Miner tried to "snowmobile" it to the finish line, but didn't quite make it; the senior banner, held up by Brian Hackett and Shawn McFarland, took first place in the banner contest; Derek Davis, senior, throws to the net while the Lakers try to sink him.

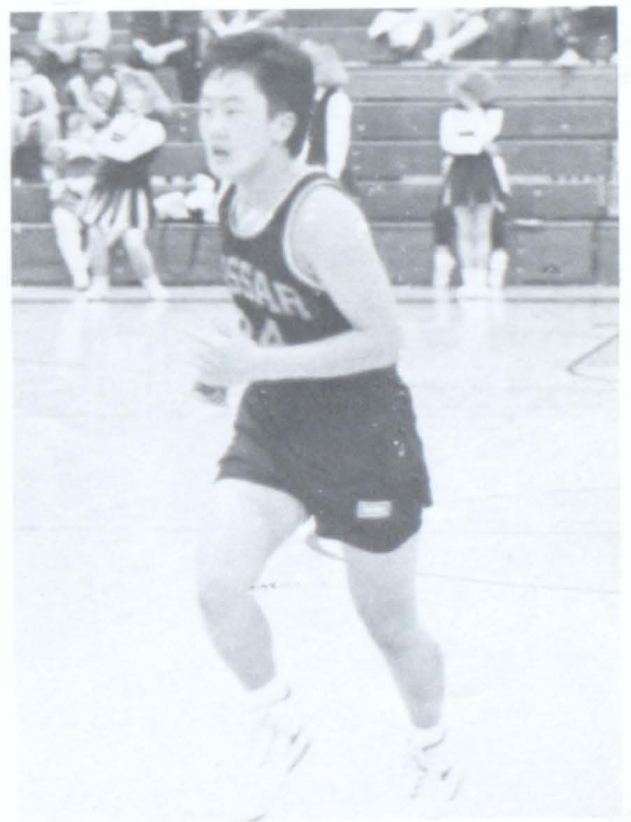

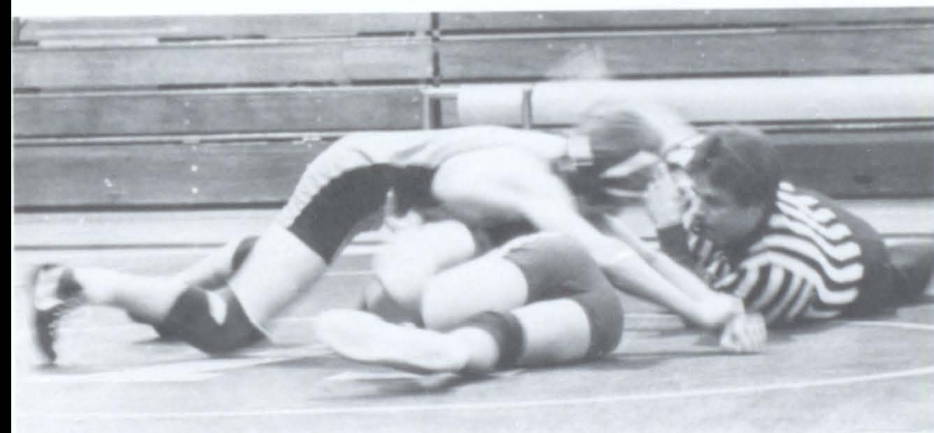

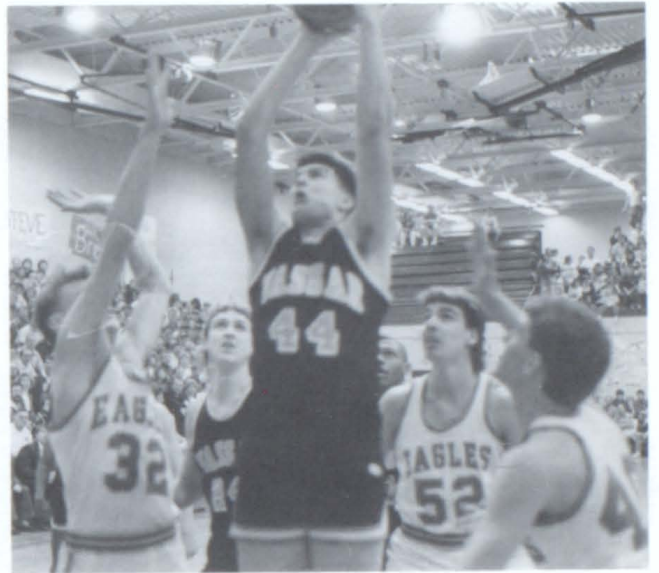

(top, clockwise) Senior Sharmon Kuzma did a lot to decorate the senior hall; sophomores Matt Lee and Maura Schmandt ham it up; the sophomores go for it in the traditional Spirit Jug contest; "Tape a Quarter to Your Head Day" turned Michelle Mell into a Cyclops; something fishy is going on with freshman Rachel Moorer; Jason Morley stretches for the jump.

The 1990 TBA Champions

(Photo 1.) The following team members earned these honors: Jason Morley and Derrick Davis were named Co-MVP's and made First Team All-Conference; Carlos Wilson won the Coach's Award and was named Second Team All-Conference; Lionel Wallace was named MIP and made Third Team All-Conference; Carlos tries for a swish; Chuck thinks of his defensive strategy; Derrick soars to the hoop.

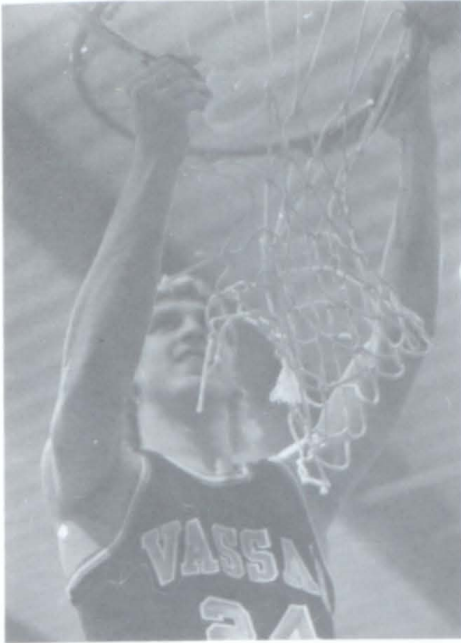

Excitement was the name of the game as the Vassar Vulcans scored their way to a TBA Championship. The electrifying team brought out the community game after game as they swarmed their way to victory; Defeating 'Muth was good the first time, but defeating them in district finals was a moment never to be forgotten. The catch phrase for the local broadcaster was always the same — "Is there anyone left in Vassar?" — as they commented on the team's ability to bring the fans out. The 1990 team was a winner all the way through the season. Congratulations to Coach Buchman and his 1990 Basketball Team.

Cheerleading Nationals

Last summer the Varsity cheerleaders attended ICF cheerleading camp at Ferris State University, where they qualified for national competition. The 13-member squad, their coach Beth Ritzenburg, and several of their family members traveled to Nashville, Tenn., over Christmas break for the IOCC meet. The competition was held at the Opryland Hotel. Although the squad performed well, it only managed to finish in the top 25. (photo top l.) Captain Trish Welke, Andrea Kuhn, Sherry Swartz, co-captain Trocoa Cox, Jenni Bielert, Scott Withers, Heather David, Jenny Hall, Jessica Falbo, Heidi Mead, co-captain Jill Bekemeir and Susan Levis proudly pose for a quick picture; the varsity squad proves "togetherness" is truly a winning combination; the cheerleaders nervously await their turn; practice makes perfect; it's photo time; while competing the squad puts their hear and soul into every move.

To fit the occasion on Comehomeing, Jason Raymond drove to school in a 1951 Mercury owned by Larry Hubbard of Vassar. The unusual set of wheels complimented the very formal attire of Jason, who had been named Junior Class representative, and Jill Colosky, who escorted him.

Jason said that he felt good about driving the car because not too many cars like that are seen anymore. He also said that driving it was very different from driving his own car, a Chevette.

He created quite a stir as he drove it around town. "One of the things I noticed was that a lot of older people were watching us. I wondered if they were remembering their own teen years."
