Congratulations Amanda Fackler - DAR Recipient

Amanda Fackler was this year's Vassar High School winner of the Daughters of the American Revolution Good Citizen Award (DAR). She was selected by the high school staff because of her leadership abilities, dependability, public service and patriotism.

"I was surprised when I received it," she said, "because I really didn't expect it. I was happy that the faculty thought I had those qualities."

Amanda has been active in Students Against Drunk Drivers (SADD), volleyball, Girls' State (sponsored by the American Legion) between her junior and senior years and attended United Nations Pilgrimage for Youth sponsored by the Rebekka's and Oddfellow Lodges. She was also a member of the Close Up group, attending the session during her sophomore year. She also participates in Karate, attending various competitions throughout her study of the art. Amanda plans to attend Grand Valley State to study biology and chemistry.

The 1999 Homecoming ceremonies were very exciting for both students at Vassar High and people in the community. This year was the 150th Anniversary of Vassar and many new activities were added to the Homecoming festivities.

The Homecoming week was filled with the annual float building, hall decorating, spirit week, and dance after the game. Along with these a bonfire, King's and Queen's Tea, an alumni game, and a Teachers' Tea were held. Spirit Week included Pajama Day, Hobo Day, Tin Foil Day, Wacky Hair Day, and the annual Orange and Black Day. This year's theme, chosen by the Student Senate, was Superheroes.

Winning the hall decorating was the Freshmen Class with "Batman: Zap Those Dukes!" The Junior Class took first place for float building with "Tarzan and the Vulcan Jungle". Everyone in the school district was invited to the pep assembly; once again the Freshmen Class took first place. Overall winner of the Homecoming festivities was the Freshmen Class.

A bonfire was held on Thursday night before the big game. The bonfire was attended by the football players, cheerleaders, the band, and many people from the community. Friday night the Varsity football team defeated the Garber Dukes, the game was followed by fireworks. After the fireworks there was a dance inviting all past and present students of Vassar High School. Saturday ended the festivities with the alumni football and basketball games and Teachers' Tea.

The 1999 Homecoming King's Court included Bill Germain, Levi Haley, Jon Hoerlein, Mike Keinath, and Dereke Wilcox. The 1999 Homecoming Queen's Court included Margaret Bentley, Amanda Fackler, Bethen Glady, Nikki Meyer, and Holly Sargent. Margaret Bentley and Levi Haley were crowned the 1999 Homecoming King and Queen during the halftime ceremony. Underclassmen Representatives were Tricia Barnes and Josh Koch (Freshmen), Rachel Olson and Zeke Espinoza (Sophomores), Kristyn VanWormer and Justin Heinlein (Juniors).

The King's and Queen's Court anxiously await the announcement of the 1999 Homecoming King and Queen.

In districts, the Vulcans beat Caro to make it to the semifinals to play Millington. They lost a close game to end the season. Many of the losses Vassar played were close games. This year's team was very competitive and the seniors played a big role. The five seniors this year were Brad Main, Ivan Jankovic, Jon Hoerlein, Jason Harper and T.J. Finkbeiner. They will be missed but the Vulcans hope to have good seasons in the years to come.

Youth In Government Travels To Lansing

Vassar High School's Youth in Government delegation traveled to Lansing on March 15, 2000 to attend the Annual Spring Conference. Vassar's group was thirty strong, including two committee chairs and a governor candidate. Jason Pintar, a YIG Junior, was selected as the red Social Services committee chair. Matthew Keinath, a YIG Senior, was selected as the green Transportation committee chair. Margaret Bentley, another Vassar Senior, was elected at the fall conference as the Central District's Governor Candidate, but was defeated by Tom Andres from Rochester Hills.

Youth in Government is a program that allows Michigan students to act as real senators and representatives for a weekend. They are split into groups labeled "red and green" because of the large number of students involved. The "senators and representatives" sit in the actual House and Senate Chambers in the Capital. They make amendments and pass their own legislation which, once passed by their youth governor, is viewed by the actual Michigan House and Senate members. There is also positions in the governor's cabinet. The students also fill the positions of pages, lobbyists, and sergeants at arms.

Yet another program offered at these conferences is MJP. Participants in this program partake in mock trials as defendants, counselors, or plaintiffs. Vassar's MJP team consisted of Seniors Malissa Gorleski and Matthew Bierlein and Sophomores Andrea Roedel and Lydia Hendricks. The team had a fine showing by going on and placing 5th over all other teams.

Positions included: Governor's cabinet: Kendra Stange, and Margaret Bentley, Senators: Jason Pintar (Red Social Services Committee Chair), Suzanne Perreault (Red Social Services Committee), Matthew Keinath (Green Transportation Committee Chair), and Kerri Krause (Green Education Committee), Representatives: Jennifer Beaujean (Red Social Services Committee Clerk), JoLynn Datz (Red Economic Development Committee), James Yates (Red Environment Committee), Kara Barden (Green Economic Development Committee), Kate Blossom (Green Education Committee), and Megan Franko (Green Environment Committee). Freshman House: Josh Koch, Elyse Turner, Trevor Perry, Eric Andreychuk, Brian Keinath, Danny King, and Sarah Mills, MJP Team Members: Malissa Gorleski, Matthew Bierlein, Andrea Roedel, and Lydia Hendricks, Written Press: Kaleena Atwood, Emily Hazen, and Angie Stacer, Electronic Press: Jonathan Merry, Ryan McKendree, and Olivia Sanchez.
