The Vulcan Tunnel: A new tradition was started this year when the Vulcans decided to start each home game by busting out of their own tunnel. It seemed to be a good omen because the Vulcans posted a perfect record at home during the regular season.

"Our success is credited to many things. Great Senior leadership, a great coaching staff and many early mornings."

CONFERENCE CHAMPS AND A PLAYOFF BIRTH!

The Vulcans made school history this year by qualifying for the Michigan High School Football Playoffs for the first time ever. They only needed six wins to qualify, but they exceeded expectations by winning eight games and winning the T.V.C. E. Conference. At the end of the regular season the Vulcans were ranked first in the region and seventh in the State in Division five. The team received many awards including Coach Leveille being named Coach of the Year.

Above: Vassar's offense gets ready during the Homecoming game against North Branch. The Vulcans won the game 39-0. Posting their only shutout of the season on just the right night.

PARSELL WINS STATE HONOR

Every year, the Michigan Art Education Association selects an Elementary, Middle, Secondary, and High School art teacher out of numerous applicants to win the Michigan Art Teacher Award. This year, the winner of the High School Art Award was none other than our Vassar's High School art teacher, Mrs. Lois Parsell.

"The school is really proud of her," said Mr. Middlin, VHS superintendent. "I can't think of anyone more deserving of this than Mrs. Parsell."

Mrs. Parsell, who has been teaching for nearly thirty-four years, says that she was very honored when she learned that she had won.

Graduating from CMU, Mrs. Parsell came to Vassar to teach art, and has loved every minute of it. She is very enthusiastic about teaching high school students. "Every year I view my new students as empty canvases. Through the year, those canvases become filled as I help them 'color their world'. I believe that art changes the lives of the students so that they are visually aware of the beauty of their world." she commented.

"I am very proud to have Vassar represented at this level of recognition," she continued.

Alison Thorp, one of her Advanced Art students, said "Mrs. Parsell is a deserving and wonderful teacher. I have grown a lot as an artist because of her. She is cheerful and her class is a lot of fun to be in."

Mrs. Parsell comes by teaching naturally. "My grandma was a teacher and I enjoyed art in high school," she said. "Art and Home Economics were my favorite classes, and I liked teaching Sunday school."

Innovation is something Mrs. Parsell has always admired, especially when you look at her favorite painters, the Impressionists and Modern Artists.

"I like art because it makes me happy to be able to create various artworks using multiple materials. I really love working with clay and watercolors to create one of a kind, unique works. I love color and texture."

She has created many of her own works of art using clay and watercolors, some of which are displayed in her classroom. In the words of Mrs. Parsell, "The sun is always shining in the art room."

YOUTH IN GOVERNMENT

At this year's conference, one of two Vassar MJP teams made it into the semi finals this year making it further than any previous Vassar team. This team consisted of Andrew Leach, Andrew Olson, Heather Toyzan, and Matt Andreychuk. This team took fourth overall out of sixteen very competitive teams.

Andrew Leach was awarded the Number One Attorney award performing better than over sixty other attorneys. Heather Toyzan was also awarded Best Defense Witness award which means she really knew her information.

The other team consisted of Jimmy Stacer, Nick Cooper, Wes Muntz, and Kaitlyn Stelfox.

The appellate teams consisted of Shawn Strandberg and Mias Illian; the other team consisted of Brandon Haines and Davey Withers. Strandberg and Illian made it to the final round.

At the awards banquet Allison Bender was given an award for Best

Written press Editor. Tricia Donnelly was also recognized for her work as Speaker of the House. Jessica Temple was voted in as Freshman House Speaker. Sara Rushford was an editor for the Electronic Press.

The Vassar delegation did the best they could at a Youth In Government conference this year.

The Vassar Band this year had a very successful year. The Field Commanders were Bart Rittenberg, Ryan Betz, Andrew Colosky, and Alyssa Cook. Color Guard this year consisted of 16 members with four leaders: Captain Allison Bender Assistant Captain Justina TerBush, and Squad Leaders Ashley Pileri and Crystal Sharrow. This year's marching show theme was "Disney's Fantasmic". This was chosen with relation to the trip the band took to Disney World earlier that year. The band received a second division rating at Marching Band Festival held in Dewitt, Michigan, on October 13, 2003. The band also went to Band Festival for concert band and received the highest First Division rating possible. They then went on to State Festival where they received a high Second Division rating. PROM 2004

Tropical Dreams 2004!

This year's magnificent prom was held at Grand Banquet Hall in Essexville on May 1, 2004. Everyone enjoyed the tropical theme of prom. After the dinner, the dance floor opened and was filled with couples dancing the night away. "Prom was amazing, it was filled with laughter, sadness, and excitement," said Stacy Jevicks and Alicia Patterson. In the midst of the evening, Prom King and Queen, Mike Herzberger and Alison Thorp, were announced. As well as Prom Prince and Princess, David Withers and Kristina Morman. After the crowning, the royalty enjoyed their dance together. The event was brought to an end at midnight when promgoers dispersed to continue the magical evening.
