This year the mighty Vulcans marched through the season with an overall record of 5-4. With the winning record, the team managed to put together back to back winning seasons for the first time in over ten years. David Withers set the school career record with 10 sacks, and John Petrach broke the season record with 9 sacks. The season's overall turnout was successful for Vassar.

The 2004 Vassar Golf Team had a good rebuilding season. There were many new golfers added to the roster this year. Coach Jim Carlisle announced C.J. Brimmer and Nick Jablonski Co-Captains at the beginning of the season, and they did their best to lead the team to victory. Ending the season by taking sixth at TVCs and tenth at regionals, the team has a bright future ahead. Leading the team next year will be Michael Hall, Jimmy Wickings and Brandon Drews. At the awards banquet Nick Jablonski received MVP; C.J. Brimmer received the Coaches Award; and Daryse Foether received MIP for the 2004 season.

Homecoming 2004

Vassar Vulcans

Frankenmuth Eagles

This year our football team had quite a surprise when they played the Frankenmuth Eagles. The game ended with our team only scoring 28 while the Eagles had 41 points. Many of the seniors who were on the team faced the reality that this was their last Homecoming Game in high school and they played it with all they had.

Despite the loss, many Vulcan fans continue the Homecoming events by attending the annual Homecoming Dance.

Spirit Week was a blast this year. Monday was Crazy Hair Day; Tuesday was Crazy Hat Day; Wednesday was Flashback Day; Thursday was Beach Day and Friday was Orange and Black Day. The winners of Spirit Week were, naturally, the seniors. The winners of the float building were the Juniors.

The crowning of the King and Queen was very suspenseful. All of the court members were hoping to be crowned, but only one couple would get it. We congratulate Roger Bacon Jr. (above) and Kristi Morman who received Homecoming Honors as King and Queen.

2005 Season

The Varsity Basketball team endured tough conference competition but still managed to improve their overall record from last year. Outstanding effort and a great will to win pushed the team towards this accomplishment. With six returning seniors they should continue to climb in the conference standings next season. Good Luck!

Most Valuable Player Award: In response to the success he had as a Junior, Davey Withers returned for his final season with the usual dominating presence in the paint, game consistency, and outstanding defense that his coaches and teammates expected.

Baseball

Great job this season guys!

This year Senior David Withers did an outstanding job. He was chosen to play on the Michigan High School All-Star Team, as well as being named First Team All-Conference. He also set new records for: season homeruns (11), career homeruns (24), season walks (37), career walks (85), season RBI's (51), career RBI's (109), and career hits (117). Way to go Davey!

(left) The evil trio come in to try and steal the young Prince Ivanha, so Viscera can take over and become King.

"The Worst Highschool Play in the World"

Overview

This year ended sadly but on a good note. The theatre area lost some great talent as the seniors said their final good-bye March 14 as the last performance for them.

Although we lost some we have gained quite a few future stars. This play was quite comical and filled with intended, even some unintended, errors. The cast had fun with it as well as the audience. All in all it was a fun let-loose play that everyone enjoyed.

(above) All the seniors who were in the play saying a goofy good-bye to the Vassar High School stage.

(above) Kristine Schlicht as Belinda the plump little girl eager to hear the story of Ivanha and Wesley Muntz as the Monk Rico who told the story.
